Dear Prison University Project

I would like to express my sincerest gratitude for the care package of goodies, helpful stationary and hygiene. I also appreciate the timely information provided.

I can almost guarantee that every single one of us, here incarcerated at San Quentin under quarantine lockdown, is super appreciative of these unexpected gifts.

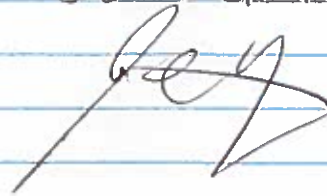

When people like those of you involved with the Prison University Project give to make these things happen, it gives us all hope.

We all understand that our lives are forever changed and in our recovery process we are learning to be better equipped citizens. With people like those of you who give your time and support helps inspire us, to be better.

Please extend ours and my thanks to all those involved in the wonderfully thoughtful gifts.

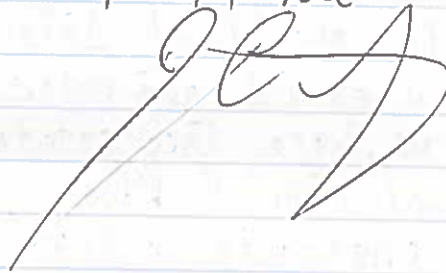

My Sincerest Thanks
